With active support of the COE of CBSE, 22 Principal Orientation Programs were conducted to mobilize the private schools, create awareness about the need of such a program for the children. A total of 1771 participants attended the 22 workshops. On the request of KV authorities, resource persons addressed the Principals of different regional KVs in the KV Principals' Regional Conferences at various places.

Facilitator Development Programs (FDP) were conducted to train teachers from all categories of schools. In all 92 FDPs were conducted for year-1, 79 FDPs for year-2 and 14 FDPs for year-3 across the country where in 6892 teachers trained for year-1 , 4487 teachers for year-2 and 840 teachers trained for year-3 .

A number of customized training programs were conducted for private schools in Delhi NCR. This was done following the request of school authorities to train large number of teachers in the school premises because of their inability to send large number of teachers to the routine training conducted by us.

Four Teachers' Orientation Workshops were conducted in the schools to keep the teachers motivated. The opportunity was taken to refresh them on the process and content of the program.

With increased volume of data and requirements of various statistical information and reports to effectively monitor the implementation of the program, planning for training programs, resource person utilization and management etc. a new database system was designed and developed with contemporary technologies. A dedicated team of IT experts worked on database design, data migration, report design, checking data integrity, testing the system etc. Also some new features were added to enhance the internal user experience.

A short video documentary was prepared showcasing the purpose, vision, and unique methodology of the program, training sessions, class observations, experience sharing by teachers and students to document the present state of the program.

Quantum of information about the program has increased substantially. To cater to the needs of various stakeholders of this program, the structure and contents of the web site has been redesigned to present in a more user friendly way.

A highlight of this year was the first time conduction of a day long Refresher Training Program for 124 select teachers from schools in the National Capital Territory, who had completed three years of training of the program and were continuing the program in their schools. The idea was to observe how awakened they themselves were, what they assimilated from the program, what new ideas they have to awaken children using the knowledge they have gained from ACP and to strengthen their commitment to the program . The effort was a beginning in building a sustainable ACP community.

Another highlight of this year was the first time conduction of a day long Refresher Program for Students in which 146 students from schools in the National Capital Territory, who had completed three years of the program. The idea was to observe how awakened they were and what they had assimilated from the program. The refresher program developed by Illumine Knowledge Resources Private Limited, Mumbai was a great success as students went back totally inspired.

For recruiting Resource Persons and Vivekananda Fellows, the ACP recruitment team in coordination with the Amity University and the Delhi University's placement cells organized recruitment drive. This recruitment activity reaped good dividends and the number of resource persons today are 82.

Implementation was also greatly emphasized on with schools visits by resource persons going up significantly this year to 3122 from 2584 of last year. Because of strengthening of relationship with trained teachers and schools authorities, the program implementation improved significantly especially in KV, JNV and Government schools.

To help Government schools conduct the program Projector distribution for Government schools in Haryana, Rajasthan and Madhya Pradesh took place in Gurgaon, Ajmer and Bhopal respectively in the month of March, 2019. A total of 110 projectors were distributed to these schools to conduct the program. The projectors costing Rs. 44 lakhs were sponsored by a Public Sector Undertaking (PSU) organisation.

Activity Report

Vision of the program

Swami Vivekananda believed that education is the manifestation of perfection already in man. The ACP enables children to bring out their full potential (character, knowledge and skills) so that they become awakened citizens and India can be restored to surpass its past glory.

Program in nutshell

A number of programs are available in the value education space for schools to choose from. The Awakened Citizen Program is unique in both the content and the way it is facilitated in the class rooms.

The emphasis is on students discovering the values which they would like to live by rather than being told what is "right" or "wrong". The methodology followed by ACP revolves around a 4-step unfolding of Discovery, Acceptance, Reflection, and Transformation (DART) within the child.

Proper facilitation by the teachers to encourage students to think from various perspectives, participate in the discussions and learn from peers is crucial for the program to create a lasting positive impression on the students.

Outline of the program

The ACP is a 3-year graded value education program starting in middle school and comprises a total of 48 modules of minimum 45 minutes duration each. Each class/year goes through 16 modules of PowerPoint presentation conducted by teachers who are trained especially for this in Facilitators' Development Program (a.k.a. Teachers Training). In these workshops teachers are provided an introduction to the content and given hands-on exposure on implementation methodology of the program in schools.

They are also given practice sessions so that they can go back to the class room and use the facilitation practices effectively. Two day training sessions are conducted for each of the three years of the program. The schools are provided with facilitation materials in Hindi and English. These include CDs, Manuals etc. containing the program sessions and facilitation guides that detail how teachers can effectively conduct the sessions.

In addition, resource persons from the ACP team conduct school visits across the country from headquarters as well as from regional centers and observe ACP classes to ensure that the program is being carried out as per the guidelines given during the training. This also gives an opportunity to ACP implementation team to provide feedback to teachers regarding facilitation practices and to assess the impact of the program on the students. This has been recognized by many schools as a unique aspect of the ACP where program merely does not stop with a two day workshop.

All aspects of our work which include conduction of workshops, training the trainer, maintaining an integrated database system, making school visits, complete documentation of all these activities, preparation of reports for sponsors and other stakeholders, liaising with government agencies, recruiting resource persons, interfacing with stakeholders through website and Facebook and messaging platforms are done by a very diverse group of resource persons.

Outreach

ACP resource persons often conduct workshops for high school students, college students, all teachers of schools, government institutions, corporates etc. when approached by those who need to understand Swami Vivekananda's teachings on man-making education, character building etc.

Way Forward

Every year, the ACP Team has faced and overcome challenges, found innovative ways to motivate and inspire school managements, teachers and children. At the same time we have taken steps to build a cadre of committed resource persons, who have taken service to very great heights. The endeavour before us is to find and retain excellent facilitators, who do not mind travelling to remote areas and handholding trained teachers. The other challenge is to ensure that trained teachers remain motivated regardless of the difficulties they face in their work environment. Yet another area of work is to involve parents in ACP as children should not be exposed to conflicting ideas from home and school. The time and momentum is right to reach wider and deeper and involve all stakeholders in man making education.
